HOW SKYROCKET WON.

Aged Sport Tells How He Raced Horses Fifty Years Ago.

"Ye don't mean to say ye never heard Skyrocket?" remarked the aged sport who has known and owned more re-narkable horse flesh than any other man on the turf.

All present signified their ignorance of any such animal. The aged sport's emotion so far overcame him that he actually hesitated in the act of draining his glass.
"Well, I be durned! Where was you brought up, anyway? Why, Skyrocket

They are ready to play at any time or any place.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 26.—The American association players won the first game of the post season series by batting Nicholas freely and playing a fine fielding game. "Pon" Anson and Tim Hurst acted as umpires. Attendance 4.000. Score: "But they didn't know the jock nor the horse. He pulled up a bit an' got a running start, an' sailed right over 'em like a real skyrocket, an' went on an' won the race by three lengths. Now, what do you think of that, an' what do you think of yourselves for not knowin' about that horse?"

The aged man glared at his audience so fiercely that it was some moments before the man farthest from him managed to ask:
"D-d-did you buy the state?"

The light died out of his eyes, his face feli and he almost choked as he finished his story:

"Oh, one of the jockeys put in a claim of foul 'cause Skyrocket kicked his cap off when he went over him, an' them judges allowed the claim and disqualified him. I had to sell the horse to make good on,my bets."

No one having anything further to say, the meeting adjourned.

Ogden, Sept. 26.—The second day's races at the county fair drew a much larger crowd than the previous day and greater interest seemed to center in the events. Betting was quite brisk and considerable money changed hands. The free-for-all pace and trot was won by Chester, a Salt Lake horse, who captured the second, third and fourth heats. Polly Garr won the first. The best time was 2:294. The quarter-galle dash was taken by Pearl Skeen in 25 seconds.

SOCIALIST TICKET. Thirty-eight Voters Place in Nomination Full List of Candidates.

A mass meeting of the Socialists of Weber county, called for last night, assembled in the city hall, placed in nom-ination a complete legislative and coun-ty ticket and adopted a platform. There were thirty-eight voters in attendance and considerable enthusiasm tendance and considerable enthusiasm was exhibited by a number of those who spoke. The platform adopted reaffirms the national platform of the Socialist party as well as the Utah state platform. The document is made up largely from extracts taken from the declaration of principles adopted recently at Provo for the Socialist party. The titlest placed in remination follows: The ticket placed in nomination fol brought up, anyway? Why, Skyrocket was the greatest horse that ever eat oats. I raced him all over Texas fifty years ago, when I was a leetle more lively than I be now. I beat everything in sight with him. Nothin' had no show agin' him. Nothin' had no show agin' him. They piled up weight on him by the ton, but they couldn't stop him, and I couldn't get no kind o' bettin' agin' him at all.

"There was a job put up on me once. I took him out to a county fair where the best horses in the state was runnin', and he made 'em look like plow horses. The next day, when he was to run in another race, I was knocked silly to find everybody bettin' 2 to I agin' my animal. I took more than I had ready money to take, an' figgered on buyin' up the state when the race was over.

Won't Close Schools.

The members of the Ogden board of education last night disapproved of the proposition submitted by State Super-intendent Nelson and Professor Wil-liam M. Stewart, president of the State Teachers' association. The proposi-tion was that the board dismiss the schools for one week some time early in December in order that the State Teachers' convention may be held at that time in place of the week between Christmas and New Year's, as has heretofore been the custom. The board declined to adopt the suggestion, hold ing that the last week in January is the proper time for the convention.
